

Heather Allan

Ref. Image: God Save the King - Selena

Age: 19

Gender: Female

Ethnicity: Caucasian

Nationality: Scottish

Biography: Heather grew up with her parents and their border collie on the family farm. She is no stranger to the hard graft of farm life and doesn't shy away from getting her hands dirty. Being used to a regular rhythm, she finds change unsettling and must develop a sense of when to act and when to plan. Growing up in nature, she has a greater understanding of the local flora and fauna than the locals themselves. This has resulted in a naivety of the world and people beyond the farm. Initially, she takes things at face value only to have her trust broken. Despite her father's attempts to train her in his workshop she's still a clot with tools but a fine shot with a bow.

Heather is ALWAYS:

- Direct
- Well-mannered
- Curious
- Familiar with 'farm slang'

Heather is NEVER:

- Indifferent
- Self deprecating
- Unnecessarily aggressive
- Cruel

Additional characteristics that would influence communication: cautious, risk-averse, thorough, caring, protective, empathetic, patient and comfortable with silences. She is not over confident, lazy, hasty or docile.

Sample dialogue:

- 'What was it like growing up in a city? Is it as lively as people say?'
- 'This isn't my area of expertise. How would you suggest we handle it?'
- 'Manners may seem unimportant to you but the potential reward of friendship and loyalty is priceless.'
- 'Better to be prepared and late than early and dead.'

Wants: To return to the structured and peaceful life of her youth.

Needs: To determine for herself who she is in the wider world beyond the farm.
